TO : SAC, NY
FROM : SA Richard T. Hendricky
SUBJECT: Alfred Sarant
Espionage - R

DATE: January 10, 1957

On January 8, 1957, Floyd C. Elwyn, Superintendent of the property at 65-67 Meats St., NYC, advised that he has no use for the door taken from the apartment in which Alfred Sarant had resided and which he gave to SAs Robert F. Royal and Bert Taylor in March 1951; that he did not wish the door to be returned and that if the FBI wished to destroy it, he authorized its destruction. Elwyn furnished a written release of the door retention or destruction by the FBI which has been placed in the exhibit section of subject's file.

SUBJECT: ALFRED EPAMINONDAS SARANT
ESPIONAGE-R
(NY file 65-15360)

DATE: 12/10/58

The Bureau has requested the NYO to contact members of the SARANT family to determine if he contacts any of them during the holiday season and that the results should be submitted in report form.

The subject was a member of the ROSENBERG espionage ring. In 1950 he deserted his wife and disappeared with CAROL DAYTON, the wife of BRUCE DAYTON. He has not been heard from since that time.

Members of the subject's family in the New York area have been previously interviewed in an attempt to locate the subject, but not for several years. It is requested that the Resident Agent at Mineola, LI, interview these relatives prior to Christmas and recontact them by telephone about January 5, 1959, to determine whether the subject has been in contact with them. Since they have not been interviewed for several years, it is suggested that they be asked in the original interviews whether they have heard from or about the subject since 1950. The subject's father should be asked about the present whereabouts of the subject's brother, RAYMOND, who was last known to be residing in England.

The following relatives of the subject should be contacted:

Father - NONDA GEORGE SARANT, currently listed as N. G. Sarant and Son, Insurance, 198 W. Sunrise Highway, telephone number Freeport 9-2222. His last known residence was 160 W. Merrick Road, Baldwin, LI.

New York Office has advised Albany of information received from WFO that a recent check of passport records and INS Lookout Notices by WFO disclosed there was neither a passport stop nor an INS Lookout Notice posted for the captioned subject. Albany was also informed by the New York Office that WFO located an INS Lookout Notice for CAROL DAYTON which was incomplete and had suggested that a new INS Lookout Notice be submitted for CAROL DAYTON.

Albany is submitting to INS at Washington, D. C. on this date forms FD-315 to arrange for the placement of INS Lookout Notices concerning both ALFRED SARANT and CAROL DAYTON.

The Washington Field Office is requested to place passport stops against both SARANT and CAROL DAYTON and advise Albany when this has been done. For the ready reference of WFO, CAROL DAYTON, nee CAROL DOROTHY, was born February 24, 1917, at Brewster, Washington, D. C., and ALFRED SARANT was born September 26, 1918, at New York City.

An information copy of this letter is designated for the completion of the New York file on the subject.
